NEW HIGH RECORD

At the Central Warehouse For Any Market—Fifty-five Cents Per Pound Is Realized.

The Central warehouse yesterday sold a basket of tobacco for 55 cents a pound. This tobacco was grown by Grover and Ingram of Sardis, and makes a new high record price for the Maysville market, and we believe it is the highest price paid this season on any market in the state.

The previous high record was also made by the Central on a basket at 48 cents, sold last week for Clem Storer.

UNCLE BOB TAKEN TO EAST END.

Yesterday afternoon the fire fighting machine Uncle Bob was taken to the East End and placed in the Planters warehouse on Forest avenue, where it will remain until the danger of a flood is past. Fireman Andy Reed and George Duley have charge of the machine at their temporary headquarters. Mr. Henry Newell is acting as fireman at Company No. 1 headquarters while the two are away.

FIFTY-THREE FEET

IS THE HIGH MARK EXPECTED IN PRESENT RISE AT MAYSVILLE.

River Now Fifty Feet and Rising Two Inches Per Hour.

CREST OF RISE MAY BE REACHED TOMORROW NIGHT.

The Ohio river is expected to reach 53 feet here by tomorrow night, unless rains follow above.

Fifty feet this morning at 9 o'clock and rising two inches per hour.

(Thursday's Times-Star.)

"The Ohio river will pass the danger line at Cincinnati—50 feet—early Friday morning and will continue to rise until a stage of 51 or 55 feet is reached. The crest will arrive here Saturday night." This is the forecast of Weather Forecaster Devereaux Thursday, and means that Cincinnati soon will be subjected to its first 1915 freshet. In all the low points of the city there was great activity during the early morning hours. Business houses in the "bottoms," whose cellars are flooded at a stage of 50 feet, put all hands to work moving goods out of reach of the climbing waters. In residence sections affected by the water, weights were placed on floatable property, fences were tied down and cellars were cleared. Jobbers and home-made craft were cleaned and calked and preparations made for a siege of inundation. A stage of 50 feet puts the water over the siding tracks in the Union Central depot and 53 or 54 feet covers the main tracks and stops traffic.

The river is rising at the rate of 2 of a foot an hour. Although the river is falling at Pittsburgh, the Ohio continues to rise at all other points above Cincinnati.

Rise in the Ohio river has caused a number of residents in the extreme west end of Newport to move their belongings to second floors.

The Homer Smith, $85,000 excursion boat, just completed at Howard's Ship yards, left Louisville for Ft. Pleasant, W. Va.

High water in the Ohio has interfered considerably with navigation between Evansville and Pittsburg, and several boats are tied up at various points.

MAJOR A. T. WOOD DEAD

Mr. Sterling, Ky.—Major Andrew T. Wood, former United States Pension Agent at Louisville, and one of the best known Republicans in Kentucky, died at his home here after a lingering illness of general debility.

He was 80 years old. He is survived by three children, James P. Wood and W. Hoffman Wood and Mrs. G. N. Cox, all of this city. Two brothers, the Rev. T. J. Wood of Fleming county, and William Wood of Bath county, also survive him.

Major Wood was well known in this city and for many years attended the Union soldiers' reunions at Maysville. He was a relative of Mrs. Anna Peel and Mr. Thomas L. Ewan of this city.

SUIT FILED IN CIRCUIT COURT.

Adams for $172.80, with interest at 6 per cent from March 1, 1914, said amount being due on a note, and for $152.08, for merchandise bought from the plaintiff, and for all costs and other general and proper relief.

An attachment on a crop of tobacco was issued.

ROOM AND A WELCOME TO U. S. A.

"A Place in the Sun."
"The German's place in the sun" is American—Courier Journal.

"With slight expense, no fighting and small hardship, a sixth as many Germans as live in the Fatherland—more than a third as many, Mr. Barthold says—have gained this place in the sun. They have been welcomed, not opposed, have prospered exceedingly, have been a force of great good in their new home, have had a part in government which they could not have in the Fatherland until after a revolution."

"The place in the sun has lots of room. If all the Germans in the world were collected in the sunny state of Texas it would hardly be more thickly settled than Germany is now."—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

And Texas is only one of many states in America in which there is room, and a warm welcome, for every German who seeks his place in the sun instead of remaining at home, bound to fight as a conscript for the Hohenzollern family and the militaristic-aristocratic ring which wants the sun itself, and not merely a place in its radiance.

Never before have Germans in America had greater cause than they now have for being glad that they sought opportunity in America instead of remaining in a king-ridden, class-ridden, tax-ridden, "adequately-prepared" country, whose peace must necessarily be as precarious as the life of a man sitting upon an open powder keg smoking a cigar.

Never in the history of the world has there been offered for peaceful conquest territory so large and rich as that to which all Germans wanting their place in the sun have been, and will be invited by America.

Surely every ambitious, industrious German's "place in the sun" is where the only shadow that falls upon sunny field and busy factories is that of the Stars and Stripes.—Courier Journal.

FARMERS AND WHEAT.

Farmers now blamed for the rise in wheat—Headline.

Nonsense. The farmers can do no wrong under the provisions of the Clayton act.—New York Sun.

ALSO A RAY OF HOPE.

There is a ray of light for New England, and perhaps a reflected one for the cotton growers, in the resumption of work on full time by seven Fall River cotton mills.—New York World.

HEATHEN COMING ON.

Heathens in Africa have become so much like little children that they are asking embarrassing questions. They want to know why the civilized nations are fighting.—Toledo Blade.

A DRAMATIC MOMENT.

It would be a dramatic moment if Senator La Follette were to send a defiant message to Oyster Bay announcing that the Progressive party still lives.—Washington Star.

BUYING TROUBLE.

According to Senator Root, the old-fashioned nation that looked for trouble is now trying to buy a quarrel.—Washington Post.

WHEN SALT LOSES ITS SAVOR.

A Jeromeless Thaw case is pretty sure to lose some of its picturesque interest for the public.—Washington Star.

AND MORE PLENTIFUL.

Prunes have gone up, but they are still cheaper than strawberries.—Boston Herald.

"LOCAL OPTION IS A FAILURE," SAYS MRS. BEAUCHAMP.

"We are satisfied that local option is a failure," said Mrs. Frances Beauchamp, state president of the W. C. T. U.

"We do not intend hereafter to recognize any movement short of state wide prohibition in the regulation of the liquor traffic."

"I am for Mr. Newman for Governor, because of his state wide prohibition position, and we intend to have a speaker in Kentucky by March 1 who will make a campaign in behalf of the candidates for the General Assembly, who declare themselves for prohibition."

"The present situation in local option territory, where liquor selling is being permitted in spite of the vote of the people to abolish it, is an unmixed calamity from a local option standpoint, but from a state wide prohibition view, I do not know but that it is a good thing as it will stir the people up to the necessity of electing a Legislature which will enact a state wide prohibition law."

"The prospects for a state wide prohibition law at the next session are very bright, but we do not want any more local option tinkering. We have had enough of that, because none of them have been able to put a check upon the distiller, and as long as the distiller operates, the blind tiger operates."

"That the distillers encourage blind tigers and boot-leggers is evidenced by the statement of J. L. Atherton to the Model License League when he said, 'You can conceal your retailers in local option territory.' I think the use of the pronoun is very significant."

Mrs. Beauchamp said that the details of the dry campaign in support of the legislative candidates were not fully perfected but that an Oregon man named Wheeler would probably make the canvass in this state. He is a German of high education and an ardent prohibitionist.

IT'S A FACT.

There is no doubt that the head of a great industrial enterprise has to work more than eight hours a day to keep his business running smoothly.—Washington Star.

WHAT GOOD.

Electric voting machines will save Congress 35 minutes on rollcalls. What will Congress do with those 35 minutes? Waste them in words?—Pittsburgh Dispatch.

FOUND AT LAST.

Some one has lamented the fact that there's no synonym for hash; but what's the matter with our Mexican policy?—Washington Post.

FOOLISH PHILOSOPHY.

The wish is sometimes father to the thought, and sometimes it is even a step further.

The man who follows his own inclinations does not always get there with both feet.

The fellow who has a gold brick to sell you is naturally very careful not to give it away.

You don't always have to wait till a man is dead to discover that he has a will of his own.

Dulcet Phrases.

The American language, so soft, so smooth:

"I like a belt that loosens what this one is."

"Well, then, why don't you loosen it more, you got it loosened?"

"It won't loosen no more."

"Well, then, you got to go to work and get one that's more loosener."—Baltimore Sun.

Keep the Change!

An editor was waited upon by a climber of Parnassus.

"This, sir," said the visitor, producing a manuscript, "is the only poem I ever wrote."

"Well, cheer up," replied the editor, "I'm not going to deprive you of it!"—Kansas City Independent.

All That Matters.

"What an awful looking sight that woman is."

"Yes, my dear, but isn't she stylish?"—Detroit Free Press.

JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER BUYS CONTROL OF THE CONSOLIDATION COAL COMPANY.

A new angle in the movement of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad to support the operations of the Consolidation Coal Company in eastern Kentucky is seen in a news dispatch from Fairmont, W. Rockefeller has bought the control of the Consolidation Coal Company for the benefit of the Western Maryland railroad which he controls, and that the heavy coal traffic now being handled from the territory of the Consolidation Coal Company will be diverted from the Baltimore & Ohio to the Western Maryland.

OH, MY, OUCH!

Church Suppers, Sales, Plays, Etc., Given Terrific Scoring By An Ironton Pastor.

The paper on "Church Finances," prepared by Rev. Charles E. Griffin, pastor of the First Baptist church, Ironton, read before the Ministerial Association of that city, and published in the Ironton Register, has caused much comment. Rev. Griffin takes the position that members of the churches should give as a religious duty, and that then there would not be necessity for recourse to chicken suppers, bazaars, etc.

"Church finances are often the trying problem to both pastor and people. They should not be and would not be, if perchance, both pastor and people would make an honest, conscientious effort to know what God requires of them in the getting, saving, using and giving of wealth. Many look on the providing for the running expenses of the church and offerings to missionary work as a burden to be endured, class the getting of money as begging and protest against the passing of the basket for a collection, as they call it. They have not yet learned that giving is worship; that it is religious. We fear that too much of the blame for such a conception and condition can be laid at the door of the preacher, who, through neglect, timidity, ignorance or refusal to face the question, has failed to preach the whole counsel of God. Why the lack of funds to carry on the missionary work of the church? Why the enormous debts that hang as millstones about the necks of missionary societies? Why the dishonesty, clap trap, black and tackle methods of local churches as seen in the legion devices for raising money?"

"Forgetting her true dignity and her high calling as the Bride of Christ, the church has gone into the oyster supper, chicken supper, fancy article, confectonary business, and even to such lengths as sale of old maids, fairs, theatricals, minstrel shows, plays, theatricals to make money for the support of the church."

"Fair and festival, frolics, mirth, are held in the place of prayer; and maidens, bewitching as sirens of old."

With worldly graces rare, Invent the very cunningest tricks, Entombed by gospel or laws, To beguile and amuse, and win from the world."

Some help for the righteous cause. "The 'House of Prayer' has been turned into a den of thieves; for it is a notorious fact in some sections that there is more over-charging 'for the good of the cause,' and more religious cheating done in connection with church bazaars, than would be safe for any half respectable business firm to tolerate. People are urged to pay double prices for what they purchase, and by some strange way of counting, they reckon they have given so much to the Lord. Such devices for getting money have been justly condemned as 'be-littling to the church, dishonoring to God and contemptible in the eyes of the world.' The church that relies on such methods most effectually dries up the streams of benevolence, destroys spirituality, fosters the worldly spirit and brings herself into the bondage of Satan; and is always having a hard time and troubles galore over her finances."

CONGRATULATIONS FOR SIR HIRAM S. MAXIM.

London, February 5.—Sir Hiram S. Maxim, who has long ranked as one of the most noted inventors of the present age, received numerous greetings today on the occasion of his seventy-fifth birthday anniversary. Sir Hiram is in the enjoyment of excellent health and vigor for a man of his years. It is said that since the beginning of the present war the opinions expressed from time to time by Sir Hiram have received the most careful consideration in official circles, since he is regarded as a high authority not only in the matter of ordnance, but also in aeronautics and naval architecture.

As is generally known, the famous inventor is an American by birth and an Englishman by adoption. He comes from an old New England family and was born at Sangerville, Me., in 1840. Owing to the alleged unfair treatment of his patents and inventions in the line of ordnance by the United States government he took up his home in England in the early '80s, and since then has visited America only occasionally on business trips. In 1899 he became a naturalized British subject.

John L. Alexander of the International Sunday school Association; David R. Porter, international secretary of the Y. M. C. A., high school department, and several other leaders of wide reputation will be heard during the several days that the conference will continue.

WEAK KIDNEYS MAKE WEAK BODIES

Kidney Diseases Cause Many Aches and Ills of Maysville People.

As one weak link weakens a chain, so may weak kidneys weaken the whole body and hasten the final breaking down.

Overwork, strains, colds and other causes injure the kidneys, and generally when their activity is lessened the whole body suffers.

Aches and pains and languor and urinary ills frequently come, and there is an over-increasing tendency towards dropsy, gravel or fatal Bright's disease. When the kidneys fail there is no real help for the sufferer except kidney help.

Doan's Kidney Pills act directly on the kidneys. Maysville testimony is proof of their effectiveness.

Mrs. Annie McClellan, 541 W. Second St., Maysville, Ky., says: "I was often dizzy and nervous and my head ached. I had pain in my back and my kidneys were weak. Doan's Kidney Pills stopped the complaint immediately and made me well and strong."

Mrs. McClellan is only one of many Maysville people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Kidney Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for Doan's Kidney Pills, the same that Mrs. McClellan had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 50c all stores. FRITZIE SCHEFF

Pawned $40,000 Gems To Defraud Creditors, Says Attorney.

New York.—An affidavit filed in the bankruptcy division of the District Court declares that Fritz Scheff last year pawned $40,000 worth of jewelry and turned over $14,000 worth of pawn tickets to Charles B. Dillingham, the attorney manager. This assertion is made by Milton Wolf, president of Joseph, incorporated milliners, who opposes the prima donna's discharge from bankruptcy. Joseph, incorporated, was one of the Scheff creditors. Wolf says the object of the pawning of the jewelry was to "blunder, delay and defraud creditors."

FOR SEGREGATION OF CRIMINALS

Philadelphia, Pa., February 5.—The justice of placing hardened criminals among non-criminals, of placing thieves and murderers in cells with the physically ill and vagrant men, was thrust out in the Municipal Court here today, in arguments on habeas corpus proceedings in the case of three burglars under sentence to the House of Correction. The application for the writ of habeas corpus was made by Director of Public Safety Porter as the first step in a campaign he has undertaken to test the legality of the action of the courts in sending hardened criminals to a corrective institution instead of to the penitentiary or county prison.

Governor Dunne told a railroad committee which petitioned him for an increase in the passenger rate in Illinois, that he favored a full legislative investigation of the subject.

TOBACCO TRUST

Break-Up Has Not Helped Farmers—Says Lucien Beckner, Secretary of New Growers' Organization.

(Lexington Leader.)

"Hundreds of Kentucky farmers have sold their tobacco crop, which means a year's tenure of a valuable farm, and a year's labor, and have not enough money to pay their debts, or buy enough coal to last them through the winter."

This was one of the statements made by Lucien Beckner, secretary of the new Tobacco Growers' Movement, to the Members' Council of the Board of Commerce today at noon, in explaining the present movement for the organization of farmers in the white Sulley district.

"The dissolution of the tobacco trust has not benefited the farmer," said Mr. Beckner. "The form of the dissolution was such that the several constituent companies are manufacturing different kinds and different grades of manufactured tobaccos, one company making the plug chewing, another the fancy smoking grades, another cigar, and so on."

"The result is that in the market none of the buyers for these several companies have any occasion to bid against the other."

"Whether it is a fact or not, the farmer thinks it is a fact that there is but one buyer, who fixes the price, and observation indicates that this is true."

Mr. Beckner then went on to say that the farmers had several causes of relief by better methods of marketing, by an appeal to the law, and by organization, but noted that pooling was no longer acceptable to the courts.

"If the law can not be invoked for the relief of the farmers, they are thrown on their own resources and must either reduce the acreage, or cut out the crop entirely. The latter is a last resort, and we realize it can not be accomplished except by violence, blood, shed and lawlessness, so we have organized in an effort to find some other way to better conditions."

"We believe that the question is one which should command the interest of every business and professional man as well as every farmer in the state, if for no other reason than its effect upon his own pocketbook. Two hundred million pounds of tobacco were sold a year ago at an average price of 15 cents. This year the average price is nearer 8 cents, a loss to the state of $16,000,000. This is not merely a loss to the farmer but to every man with whom the farmer trades."

Other Speakers At Members' Council.

Rev. J. E. Thacker was invited to address the council, and made a few pleasant remarks. George A. Bain called attention to the coming horse sales and said that the presence of the business men at the sales would have a valuable effect upon the market, even though they were not there to buy.

There was a short general discussion of Board of Commerce affairs and the meeting adjourned.

JEWELRY AND MONEY STOLEN BY LITTLE GIRL.

For some time past some one has been stealing small articles and money from the residence of Mr. James H. Hall in East Second street, and it was only Wednesday when Mrs. Hall discovered the theft of a pair of gloves by a little 13-year-old hired nurse girl by the name of Gladys Sellers, that it came to light that several articles of value, among them two diamond rings and other articles of jewelry had been stolen at some previous time. Officer Dudley Bloomhull was called and put on the case and soon located nearly all the jewelry.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall do not want to prosecute the little girl, but would like to place her in some institution where she can outgrow her bad habits. She will be taken before County Judge Rice and will probably be sent to the reform school.

Revival Services Last Evening—"Sin and Its Binding Power" Topic.

At the special services in progress at the First M. E. church, South, Miss Daisy Davis made a powerful appeal to her hearers last evening on the subject of "Sin and Its Binding Power."

In proving that sin is a curse, she cited many convincing statements in God's Word. In dealing with Proverbs 1:34, "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people," she stressed the fact that sin is a reproach to any community, for no self-respecting person would consider for a moment taking up his abode in a sinful local city. As a definition of sin, John 3:4, gives, "Every one that doeth sin, doeth also lawlessness; and sin is lawlessness."

God's law as found in the Ten Commandments is spelled in the letters LOVE, and the highest law laid down by Christ is two-fold, "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy soul and with all thy mind," and thy neighbor as thyself.

Sin against the law of God resolves itself into several great classes, perhaps the most common and least noted being that of the sin of omission. Such sins are mentioned in James 4:17, "To him therefore, that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is great sin."

The greatest sin of omission is the failure to acknowledge Christ as one's personal Savior, and to make Him the center of one's life. The second great sin is the doubtful sin, as condemned in Romans 14:23, "But he that doubteth is condemned if he eat because he eateth not of faith, and whatsoever is not of faith is sin."

Miss Davies emphasized the thought that the eyes of the church have generally been blinded to doubtful things, and that the only safe course was to avoid any actions, associations or worldly pleasures concerning which any doubt existed. The supreme test is to dedicate your life and conscience to Christ, that you may be able to avoid the doubtful sins.

The respectable sins are generally accepted in the eyes of the world, but in the eyes of God there can be no respectable sinners. Any and all sin bars mankind from God, for "the prayers of the sinners are an abomination in His sight," and He will not hear their plea; sin soon writes its characters indelibly on the face for one becomes like that with which he associates; sin also hardens and deceives so that the sinner smiles when the question of salvation is presented to him.

Other sins are the presumptions sins, by which one says complacently, "I'm a Christian, so no matter what I do, God will take care of me." There are the many secret sins, the little sins of which we are hardly aware. The he-setting sins—or, as they have been well termed—the upsetting sins, are those of temper, gossip, backbiting, etc., the ones for which all try to excuse themselves. The pious sins—the love of money—are those which too frequently dominate business life, making the most prevalent disease of today, "the yellow fever." Then there are also the sins of the tongue which include profanity, lying, obscene stories, etc.; the sins of broken vows, those which people in trouble make to God if He will help them, and which they forget as soon as the troubles are past; the hidden sins, the covered ones, not spoken of in polite society, which are

AT POINT OF STARVATION AND GERMANS WILL RUSH TO ITS RELIEF.

Belgians Again Being Hammered By the Kaiser's Forces.

London, February 4.—The remnants of the Belgian troops which are still defending the little strip of their fatherland not in possession of the Germans, once more are bearing the brunt of the fighting in the west.

Unofficial reports from Amsterdam state that the Germans are again making an attack along the Yser.

"Desperate Fighting."

London, February 4.—A feature of the war news today was the desperate fighting on the Yser canal near Westende. A dispatch for Sinis says that the Germans are making a determined effort to exterminate the remnant of the Belgian army and break through the line at the point held by them.

After a preparatory bombardment with heavy guns the Germans charged with fixed bayonets. They found the Belgians ready for them. Their attack upon several important Belgian trenches were repulsed with heavy loss.

Dropped Bombs On Trains.

A Petrograd dispatch states that on February 2, Russian aviators successfully dropped bombs on the mobilized reserves and trains of the Germans at Rawa, Zarzozze and Boguszyce, about 50 miles southwest of Warsaw.

The British claim that the surrender of Lieut. Col. Kemp and "Colonel" Bezuidenhout and the so-called "Prophet" Van denburg forecasts the end of the South African rebellion. In the surrender commands were 48 officers and 500 hurglers.

Przemysl Starving.

A dispatch from Cracow, via Geneva, states that the Przemysl garrison is on the verge of starvation. It is said that the governor of Cracow has been ordered to prepare for the coming of 200,000 Austrian troops which will be withdrawn from the center to relieve the garrison.

The British say that an attempt to bridge the Suez canal was unsuccessful.

A Buenos Aires dispatch states that a British cruiser sank a German auxiliary cruiser off the Patagonian coast.

FIRE AT JOHNSVILLE.

The general merchandise store of John McLaughlin, Bracken county, was destroyed by fire. The loss is only partially covered by insurance.

Did You Ever Stop to Think

Why it is that we can sell a loaf of bread cheaper than you can make one yourself? It is because we have carefully studied out the only economical ways of making good bread, and this coupled with the fact that we turn out an enormous quantity each day enables us to sell you the bread at almost the cost of the materials used.

If you like a change once in a while, try our SALT RISING BREAD. Only 5c a loaf.

"I GUESS THAT'S IT," SAID THE OTHER.

BOTH WERE CORRECT. THEY DO SORT IT BETTER AND HANDLE IT MORE CAREFULLY AND IT DOES
